Munich, 12 February, 2025. After a first unveiling at Vicenzaoro, January 2025 edition, NANIS ITALIAN JEWELS presents the integration of the BOULES and MUSE collections at INHORGENTA. Complementing the vibrant assortment of Rosolio, Lattementa, Violetta, and Anice, and alongside the classic gold or pavé versions, Nanis' iconic Boule now takes on an iridescent and shimmering white hue: Dolcevita. Simultaneously, the MUSE necklaces and bracelets are adorned with mother-of-pearl and amazonite in an elegant and refined double-sided design, while the earrings are enriched with the stones introduced in the Boules collection. Completing the range is a new chevalier ring model.

Boules: The new Dolcevita proposal

The Boules collection, renowned for its round and sinuous shapes and vibrant colors inspired by the Dolce Vita and Italian drinks of the 1960s (Rosolio, Lattementa, Violetta, Anice), introduces the new Dolcevita shade: the iridescent and shimmering white of mother-of-pearl. With its natural and delicate luminosity, this stone blends seamlessly with the collection's other hues, adding a new dimension of elegance and freshness. Dolcevita is not just a new shade, but the very essence of the inspiration behind the collection. With its subtle iridescence, mother-of-pearl captures the timeless refinement and lightness of those carefree years, celebrating an authentic and sophisticated beauty. A name that becomes a statement of style, symbolizing simple yet extraordinary elegance.

Charms, Ciliegine earrings, and rings in the Boules collection are now available in this new variant, offering endless possibilities to mix and match with other Nanis creations. A celebration of timeless beauty, life's simple pleasures to sip and relish with a carefree spirit, and the freedom to express one's unique style.

Refined Harmony of Stones

For the Muse collection, a tribute to the great muses of the past who defined elegance with their unique and timeless style, Nanis reveals a new version of necklaces and bracelets, now available in two sizes and two-color variations: white mother-of-pearl and blue amazonite. This modern and colorful reinterpretation of the classic pearl choker, an everlasting symbol of charm and class, features a double-sided design, offering two styling options. On one side, the hand-engraved 18kt gold boule represents timeless elegance; on the other, the ethereal purity of mother-of-pearl or the lively freshness of amazonite. A versatile jewel that adapts to every mood, occasion, and personality.
