Time

Turning a moment in time into something extraordinary.
This is our collection of time pieces.

Our collection of watches are defined by bold, yet simple watch faces and the usage of premium materials.

At first glance, you will notice a clean and uncomplicated expression, but when you look closer a range of refined details give each design its very own characteristic. We believe this is the reason that the Jacob Jensen Time collection is so enduring.

Meaningful Moments

Everything these days seems to be focused on minutes and seconds, or bits and bytes. But, how do they really matter if we do not look at them together with the bigger picture?

Is time spent with our loved ones, or doing things we love, valued in decimals?

We prefer to think more in terms of years and decades, when we design.

Time is a gift. Make it count.

The Timeless Nordic watch collection is designed to celebrate the Nordic nature of JACOB JENSEN®.

Combining simple design, functionality and high-quality materials the Timeless Nordic collection watch is an iconic timepieces created by the Jacob Jensen Design Studio.

Inspired by Nordic nature

While it may be hard to spot at first, the elegant curves, sharp reflections and material honesty of Jacob Jensens designs have always been inspired by the raw nature of the Nordics.

This idea is at the core of our products today.

In 1986, the Museum of Modern Art in New York included the watches in its Design Study Collection.
They were the first products marketed under the trademark of JACOB JENSEN®. Now, over 35 years after the first sketches were made, the Classic has been updated while keeping it's iconic 'Day and Night' design.

A sense of purity pervades the minimal design of the clock with its simple circular face set in an elegant square frame. The clock face has no digits, which allows the clean lines of the hands to glide elegantly across the contrasting canvas, marking time.
